

A trip to my library on the internet

Each individual library decides what services it provides either in person or on the internet. You may find this information in the library's Rules and regulations.

- You will find information on a particular library in the section “Czech libraries directory”

All libraries provide reference services as stated on their www pages. You may also use a service called Ask the library

Generally, libraries provide information on its materials in catalogues and databases free of charge, including record retrieval, without user's registration.

- Information on Czech libraries resources are listed in the section “What was published where”
- Summary of Czech union catalogues
- Outline of scanned catalogues (There is no English version)

Interlibrary loan

- List of libraries providing international interlibrary loan services
- List of libraries with www order forms or accepting e-mail orders (There is no English version)
- Interlibrary loan information is on www pages of a particular library – to find the library, use the section “Czech libraries directory”

Via proxy server, registered users may access their library's licensed resources if it is in accordance with the licence agreement.

- List of licensed resources is available on portals

- STM (Science, Technology and Medicine)
 - InfoZdroje (There is no English version)
 - Electronic information resources available at the institutions of higher education (There is no English version)
- List of individual periodicals available in licensed databases are on portals
- STM (Science, Technology and Medicine)
 - EZB Electronic Journals Library - Consortium Czech Republic
 - PEC – Electronic journals portal of Charles University
- List of resources licensed for a particular library are on the library www pages – see section “Czech libraries directory”
for example List of licensed resources in the National Library of the Czech Republic or National Technical Library in Prague

Libraries may provide ordering, accessing or document delivery services on the internet. These services are usually tied to users registration and opening a user' account. The electronics copies are available only for Czech citizens.

List of document delivery services in the Czech Republic (in Czech only):

- Virtual polytechnic library
- Document delivery from the collections of the National Library of the Czech Republic
- Virtual Library of Education
- Czech Technical University in Prague